Voter Turnout by Party

Did you know?

In Boulder County, we use ballots counted to calculate turnout. Ballots cast may better reflect attempted turnout, but that number includes ballots that could not be counted, usually due to signature issues. Also, the number of ballots cast is not always easy for the public to find.

62 at Vote Centers

A Family Affair...

24 Boulder County families had more than one family member working for us this election!

+79,000

Voter registration records processed or updated this year!

+90 Signs and flags posted around the county

Did you know?

We hire fewer temporary employees for Coordinated Elections than for General Elections. However, in off-year elections, many voters wait until Election Day to return their ballots. Because so many ballots come in at once, we still need about the same number of people working in Ballot Processing on Election Day.

Student Judges

14 Student judges served this election

6 Area high schools represented by student judges

New this Year...

Student judges were hired for behind-the-scenes Ballot Processing roles. They also traveled with courier teams to pick up ballots.

At Your Service

Our Ballot Processing team works to ensure that every eligible ballot is counted quickly and accurately, while keeping voters informed if their ballot envelope signature is accepted or needs to be cured.

The Elections Division aims to process 90% of all ballots by the end of Election Day. In 2025, the team exceeded that goal, processing 91% of ballots by day's end and notifying voters of their ballot status.

Forget something?

As much as we want every vote to count, sometimes envelopes come in that we can't process.

This year, we received a ballot from 2018 and 12 voters returned empty envelopes!

394 ballots were received after 7 p.m. on Election Day and couldn't be counted.

Curing what ails a Ballot

In Colorado, we verify you are who you say you are by the signature on your ballot envelope. When our Signature Verification team can't match signatures we have on file to what's on your envelope, you have to "cure," or fix, the issue.

1503 Ballots required curing this election

542 Ballots were cured and counted

Dog eat your ballot?

This year we received a badly damaged envelope with a note that read "My dog ate my ballot!" Happily, the damage wasn't too bad and we were able to verify and count it!

Halloween Mishap

We also had a request for replacement ballots due to a "pumpkin explosion." The unruly pumpkin took out two ballots!

Voter Communication Outreach and Engagement

Health Care Facilities Outreach

Bipartisan judges visit health care facilities (HCFs) without secure mail rooms to deliver ballots and assist residents in voting. We continue to refine our HCF process to provide helpful services to this often overlooked population.

Vote Early Day Outreach

Boulder County Elections hosted events with local partners around the county to celebrate Vote Early Day (VED). VED is a national, nonpartisan movement that works to ensure all Americans have the tools to vote early.

Did you know?

We host public webinars during the election season. The Election Information Webinar is geared towards the general public and focuses on the election process. Election Night and Beyond is geared towards candidates, the press, and local officials. It focuses on what happens once the polls close on Election Day through certification later in November.

Ballot Processing Center Tours

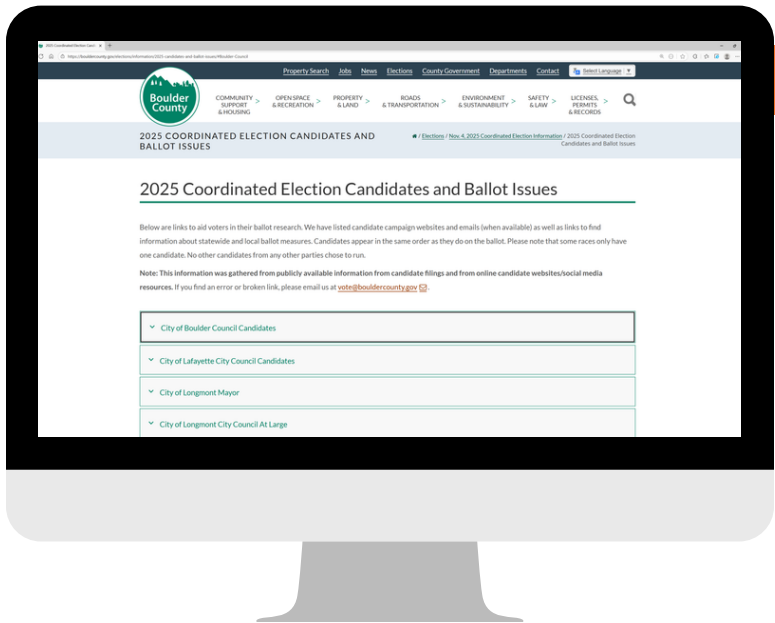

Every election, we host tours of our Ballot Processing Center. This is a great chance for members of the public to see the journey of a ballot from when it arrives at our facility through acceptance and counting.
